The Plot Against Hawley CHAPTER I. TUULT

HOW THE PLOT ORIGINATED. Near noon, the 5th of September, 1852, a man laboring under great excitement was walking hurriedly up Breadway, New York. His features were flushed and convulsed, his glances wild and restless, his whole mien indicative of keen anguish.

Turning to the right into Bleecker street, he soon reached a plain three sto-ry and basement brick house, to which NO. 15.

he gave himself admittance.
"Are you there, Ruth?" he exiled "I from the hall. A step was heard overhead, followed by the rustling of a dress, and a young lady descended the front stairs. Despite several points of marked contrast, there was a family likeness about the couple that proclaimed them to be brother and Frequently all ordinary food in certain diseases is rejected by the stomach, and even loathed by the patient; but nature, ever beneficent, has furnished a food that in all diseases is beneficial—in some directly curative. Such food is milk.
